

HEAD QUARTERS OF THE ARMY,

WEST POINT, N. Y., August 10, 1858.

GENERAL ORDERS, } No. 19.

The General-in-Chief learning of the arrival of the troops under Brevet Brigadier-General Johnston at their destination in the Salt Lake country, after their detention in the valley of Green River during the last winter, takes occasion to commend them in General Orders—as he has already done through their commander—for their exemplary conduct under the trying circumstances in which they have been placed.

Detained, after a long and wearisome march of over a thousand miles, by causes over which their commander had no control, in a most barren and inhospitable region; subjected—by the rigors of the season, which destroyed or paralyzed their draught animals—to toils of no ordinary nature; and, on account of the destruction of part of their supplies, obliged to labor with insufficient clothing; indifferent, and often restricted rations of food—this fine body of men, instead of giving way to insubordination, irregularities, or murmurs even, went on improving in discipline and instruction, and discharging their accumulating duties with the utmost alacrity and cheerfulness: and, at the order of their commander, not showing the inhabitants of Salt Lake Valley, as they passed through their settlements, either by act, word, or gesture, that they had recently stood towards them in a hostile attitude.

The march—in the depths of winter—of Lieut. Colonel (now Colonel) P. St. George Cooke, commanding the 2d Dragoons, from Fort Laramie, through the South Pass to Green River; and, that of Captain R. B. Marcy, 5th Infantry, from Camp Scott, over the mountains to New Mexico, deserve, as they have already received, special commendation.

Brevet Brigadier-General Johnston has had the honor to be supported by officers of great intelligence, zeal, and experience. Yet it is not to be doubted that to his own high soldierly qualities, untiring exertions, tact, and sound judgment, the credit for the condition and high tone of his army is pre-eminently due.

BY COMMAND OF BREVET LIEUTENANT-GENERAL SCOTT.

IRVIN McDOWELL,

Assistant Adjutant General.
